

CALLING ME

Words & Music by Doug Carlson Copyright 2013

Do you hear me calling out your name?
I'm alone but I feel close to you again
When I'm walking by the river, when I'm looking out to sea,
I can hear you calling out for me

I can see there are rainbows in your eyes
You were born like a song that the seagulls cry
In your dreams you see visions, we're both waiting for day,
Do you hear me calling, hear me calling, calling out your name?

You fill my life like a mountain stream
Into a pool where a baby wades

Golden leaves and waterfalls, a salamander's gazing
And deep within the forest walls, I can hear you call, I can hear you call

Something drew the minstrels to the shore
And the magic waves crashed home like a lion's roar
And half the world was sleeping when the bells of heaven rang
Do you hear me calling, hear me calling, calling out your name?

Swallows fly into the clouds, a spotted doe is grazing
And deep within the forest walls, I can hear you call, I can hear you call
