Hey, when the curtain calls your name
Pay the price, all the ways to kill your pain.

She said, Love me, Love me just like you used to do.
And I don't want no sympathy. Just trying to get through.
Love me, love me, that's all I really need.
Love ain't always easy for a Rock n Roll queen.

Your a queen

There's a crowd come to hear you sing the blues.
Sing it loud, your love always makes the news.
That's right.

She said, Love me, Love me just like you used to do.
And I don't want no sympathy. Just trying to get through.
Love me, love me, that's all I really need.
Love ain't always easy for a Rock n Roll queen.

She's a queen. She gets anything.
She's a queen. Always crying out for love.

Every time that you look into the mirror.
There's a line says that love is all your fear.
That's right

She said, Love me, Love me just like you used to do.
And I don't want no sympathy. Just trying to get through.
Love me, love me, that's all I really need.
Love ain't always easy for a Rock n Roll queen.

She's a queen, of Rock N Roll.
Gets so high, then she gets so low.
Works so hard for the curtain calls.
When you get up on that stage, you've got to give it all.
